INTRODUCING HOME INDUSTRY

2021 sees the 4th year of this community-focused event showcasing all that is amazing about living in this isolated paradise of ours. As we celebrate more than 50 years of The Nameless Jarndunmunha Festival, once again it is very exciting to present the Home Industry Hub.

This event celebrates the innovation and the ingenuity of our locals by lining them up against each other in traditional home based industry, such as baking, timber craft, gardening, photography, fabric work and metal work.

The Home Industry Hub will be showcased in the Clem Thompson Pavilion. Take a look through the competitor entry kit and be inspired, as we challenge you to enter not one, but maybe two categories with one of your creations.

Will you be the next 2021 winner of one of the many categories available to enter?

HOME INDUSTRY IS DIVIDED INTO TWO SECTIONS:

Junior Home Industry

Open to early years and primary school students.

Home Industry

Open to all secondary school students and adults.

CONDITIONS OF ENTRY

- Each exhibitor can submit one entry per category.
- A separate entry must be completed for each entry.
- Entries MUST be received no later than Wednesday 21 July.

Entries must be submitted online through the website under the Home Industry tab:

<https://namelessfestival.com.au/festival-2021/home-industry/>

If you have any queries regarding Home Industry please email:
homeindustry@namelessfestival.com.au

DELIVERY OF EXHIBITS

Exhibits must be delivered to the Home Industry Hub at Clem Thompson Pavilion during these times...

- All entries, apart from consumables (food), must be delivered to the Home Industry Hub on Tuesday 3 and Wednesday 4 August between 4pm and 6pm.
- All food entries must be delivered to the Home Industry Hub on Friday 6 August between 7am and 3pm (any late entries will not be accepted due to closure for judging).

The Home Industry Hub in the Clem Thompson pavilion is open to the public to view all the exhibits on Festival Saturday from 10am.

The Home Industry Hub in the Clem Thompson pavilion is open to the public to view all the exhibits on Festival Saturday from 10am.

JUDGING

The Judges for this event are selected from community members who have specialised experience in the areas they are judging.

All judging will be completed 'blind'. Exhibitor's names will not be seen by the judges until after Judging has taken place.

COLLECTION OF EXHIBITS

You must collect your exhibit on Festival Saturday between 4pm and 6pm..

Please remember to collect your exhibit during this time to help the volunteer committee attend other tasks during festival pack up.

Your understanding in this matter is greatly appreciated. For further information, please contact the organisers:
homeindustry@namelessfestival.com.au

PRIZE MONEY

All prize money can be collected from the Home Industry Hub at the Clem Thompson Pavilion, on Festival Saturday between 4pm and 6pm.

You must collect your prize money during the specified time. All unclaimed prize money will be donated to the Children's Leukaemia & Cancer Research Foundation at the completion of the festival.

Help the Nameless Jarndunmunha Festival committee spread the word of this amazing event. Motivate your family, friends, neighbours and work colleagues to enter and lets make this event a hit.

Its success lies in the community's involvement and support.

WHICH SIDE OF THE DITCH WILL WIN THE BRAGGING RIGHTS?

NZ and Australia fight over Cricket, Rugby, Singers, Actors, and Food is very contentious too!

History is littered with to-ing and fro-ing over who could lay claim to our favourite foods, with home kitchens on both sides of the ditch churning out similar treats for decades.

Whether your ancestry ties lie across the ditch, or here on the land of the red dirt, or even somewhere further afar, will you be able to lay claim to baking the winning treat?

CONDITIONS OF ENTRY

- Exhibits will be judged on freshness, fineness and evenness of the texture and colour, and attractiveness of the entry.
- All baking and icings must be made from scratch and not from store bought cake mixes.
- All Baking must be exhibitors own work.
